"AS TIME GOES BY"

Morocco in Mind

Remember the year 1942?

Even for those who don't, they may very well know the classic movie 'Casablanca', and also possibly have a feeling or two about its tenuous theme tune, 'As Time Goes By'. I wasn't born at the time of the movie's release, but its global success, reputation, and awards easily turned my attention to it. And after watching it, I would say it made a deep impression upon me. But let's not talk about this movie too much here, as it's more the location of where the story took place that governs my core topic. Casablanca is a city in the north of Morocco (however the movie was not actually shot there) and Morocco truly is one of the countries I feel I must see during this lifetime.
